Aphorisms

APHORISM: a short, pointed sentence expressing a wise or clever observation or a general truth.

◆The nicest thing about the future is that it always starts tomorrow. ◆Money will buy a fine dog, but only kindness will make him wag his tail. ◆If you don't have a sense of humor, you probably don't have any sense at all. ◆Seat belts are not as confining as wheelchairs. ◆How come it takes so little time for a child who is afraid of the dark to become a teenager who wants to stay out all night? ◆Why is it that at class reunions you feel younger than everyone else looks? ◆No one has more driving ambition than the boy who wants to buy a car. ◆There are worse things than getting a call for a wrong number at 4 a.m. It could be a right number. ◆No one ever says, "It's only a game" when their team is winning. ◆I've reached the age where the happy hour is a nap. ◆Be careful reading the fine print. You're probably not going to like it. ◆Do you realize that in about 40 years rap music will be the Golden Oldies. ◆After 60, if you don't wake up aching in every joint, you are probably dead! ◆A good time to keep your mouth shut is when you're in deep water. ◆Business conventions are important because they demonstrate how many people a company can operate without.

POINTS TO PONDER

Always and never are two words you should always remember never to use. (Wendell Johnson)

You know your children are growing up when they stop asking you where they came from and refuse to tell you where they're going. (P.J. O'Rourke)

MONEY TALKS, BUT ALL MINE EVER SAYS IS GOODBYE.

In times like these, it is helpful to remember that there have always been times like these. (Paul Harvey)

SPECIAL POEM FOR OLDER FOLKS

A row of bottles on my shelf
Caused me to analyze myself.
One yellow pill I have to pop
Goes to my heart so it won't stop.
A little white one that I take
Goes to my hands so they won't shake.
The blue ones that I use a lot
Tell me I'm happy when I'm not.
The purple pill goes to my brain
And tells me that I have no pain.
The capsules tell me not to wheeze
Or cough or choke or even sneeze.
The red ones, smallest of them all,
Go to my blood so I won't fall.
The orange ones, so big and bright
Prevent my leg cramps in the night.
Such an array of brilliant pills
Helping to cure all kinds of ills.
But what I'd really like to know.....
Is how each pill knows where to go?!

Parent's Excuses Take The Cake!

(Taken from Ann Landers)

❖ Dear Teacher: Please excuse Lisa for being absent. She was sick, and I had her shot. ❖ Dear Teacher: Please excuse Jimmy for being. It was his father's fault. ❖ Dear Mr. Brown: Please excuse Jason for being absent yesterday. He had a cold and could not breed well. ❖ To Mary's Teacher: Please excuse Mary for being absent yesterday. She was in bed with gramps. ❖ Dear School: I hope you will excuse John for being absent on Jan. 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, and also 33. ❖ Dear Mr. Thomas: Jennifer missed school yesterday for a good reason. We forgot to get the Sunday paper off the porch, and when we found it Monday, we thought it was Sunday. ☺
